A VISIT TO STANFORD.

The writer had the pleasure Friday of visiting the old town where he spent nearly 25 years of the best and most pleasant years of his life, and of taking the glad hands of those with whom he mingled and learned to love during that quarter of a century. Stanford is not very large nor yet very beautiful, but what it lacks in size and in beauty it makes up in excellence and, we say in truth and candor that its population embraces, to a larger extent than places of its size, the best people on earth.

Stanford was started on its career of more or less greatness something less than two hundred years ago, and while it has not grown so fast as some less favored cities, it is still slowly improving, there being evidences on many sides of growth and thrift. Stanford never has had a boom, and possibly never will have unless the gas and oil which are said to underlie the town and vicinity are utilized, with profit. Both have been struck, but the borers wearied in well doing before either showed in paying quantities.

A murder case, which attracted great interest, was being argued when we arrived in Stanford. It was that of James Kennedy for the killing of Milton Estes, at Crab Orchard, on election day. A half dozen prominent attorneys of the county and section were on either side. There have been a number of homicides in Lincoln county recently, with either acquittals or inadequate punishment, and the people are becoming aroused over the conditions. An unusually good jury was obtained in the case, and the proof being conclusive, as we are told, the accused was given a life sentence, four or five of the jury standing out for capital punishment. Young Kennedy has killed two men in as many years, having been acquitted of the first. His brother is in jail awaiting the result of his appeal from a 10-year sentence for the killing of an old German neighbor. They are sons of Grove Kennedy.

Judge Ben F. Roach, of Harrodsburg, is special judge in Lincoln county by appointment of the Governor, and he is winning golden opinions for his fairness and legal ability.

We are glad to know that the INTERIOR JOURNAL, the child of our younger days, for whom we labored in season and out, for so many years, continues to grow and prosper under the guidance of a younger brother, whose efforts deserve the success it is achieving. It is issued twice a week; has 3,500 subscribers, and is the best paying newspaper property of its size in Kentucky.

It was our first visit to the old place for nearly two years, and altogether one of the most pleasant we ever enjoyed.—Frankfort Journal.

The Moderate Drinker.

I desire to say a word of warning to the moderate drinker. To him who never becomes intoxicated and can stop at any time he chooses to do so. Yet but very few choose to stop, for after the dreadful appetite for stimulants is formed, it requires almost superhuman strength of will to resist it. Touch not, taste not, handle not, is the only path of safety and he who is wise will walk therein. There is poison in the very scent, danger in a single glass and pauperism and a disgraceful death in its continued use. Oh, young man, you I now address! As you raise the glass to your lips think of the thousands of mighty minds that this disgraceful habit has destroyed and ask yourself this question: "Am I stronger than he?" Touch not, taste not, handle not—there is safety alone in that. Why, I can close my eyes and see a procession of schoolmates and friends of later years who have passed on to the unseen world and they, like you, were once moderate drinkers, who saw no danger in a social glass, and I say to you if you value your life, if you value your own happiness or that of those dear to you, if you value your soul's eternal welfare, touch not, taste not, handle not.

A Friend,
MRS. D. B. GOOCH.

In Time of Peace.

In the first months of the Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

John Day was fined $50 at Clarksville, Tenn., for swearing over the telephone.

NEWS NOTES.

A drummer was fined $50 for treating some of his customers in Lincoln, Nebraska, under an old statute in operation for 20 years.

Three men were killed and five others seriously injured in a collision in the New York, New Haven and Hartford yards at New Haven, Conn.

George Athy, a barber at Campton, was almost burned to death in his room because of the soundness with which he slept. The mattress on the bed was afire when he was aroused.

While fighting over the possession of a rabbit, near Cynthia, which both claimed to have killed, Floyd Benson, was shot through the stomach by the younger brother, John, and so badly wounded that he will die.

John Rooney, a prisoner in the Beatyville jail, stabbed and almost instantly killed Charles Boyd, a Negro, also a prisoner, during a fight over a game of cards. The dead man was confined under sentence of five years in the penitentiary for criminal assault.

The total valuation of the tangible property of the railroad corporations operating in Kentucky, as fixed by the State Railroad Commission for the purpose of assessment and taxation for 1906, is $63,902,685. This is an increase over the valuation by this same body last year of $2,783,290.

A Central City dispatch says: According to reports current a genuine, simon-pure devil was born of a woman in Muhlenberg county. The story goes that a preacher died recently and his widow, being an unbeliever, burned all his religious books, Bible and all, and soon after a child or devil was born to her having a full set of teeth, horns, tail, claws and a hideous head and full of talk. He told the mother that he was the devil and had come to torment her for seven years and then she should die and go to hades. This information being considered by the mother as highly offensive and reprehensible in a son tried to smother him, but failing in this she took him to a pond and threw him in with the intent to drown him but he swam out and followed her to the house.

Croup.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Elder F. M. Tinder, pastor of the Christian church here, has sent in his resignation to take effect Dec. 30. During his three years' work the church has grown and prospered and it is with feelings of regret that we give up this good man, as all have learned to love him, from the least to the greatest.

L. G. Hubble is repairing his farm dwelling. Mrs. Robert Sloan has returned from a visit to her parents in Wayne county. We are glad to know that H. C. Walter is improving rapidly. Little Miss Nannie Bratton is on the sick list. James McKechnie went to Lexington Tuesday. Misses Lucy Gover and Bessie Rankin, of Bronston, are guests of Mrs. Thomas McBeath. M. F. NORTH

Is a candidate for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

J. T. ROBERTS

Is a candidate for Magistrate in the Crab Orchard Magisterial District, subject to the action of the democratic party.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that at the Capital John Sharp Williams is regarded by many Democrats as the most available candidate for the presidency. Not that they dislike Mr. Bryan, but that they think that having been honored with two nominations he should now be content to work as a private in the ranks. Besides, they say that his views on government ownership are not to be admired. All this may be true and it may be true that time has wiped out old sectional feelings, but we do not believe it. The time has not yet arrived when the Northern people will vote for a Southern man for president, as much good presidential timber as can be found south of the Ohio river, and it looks like useless talk to discuss the matter. Our opinion is that Mr. Bryan is the only candidate that can win and that he will be nominated and elected to the highest office in the nation.

THE $50,000 libel suit of Noel Gaines against Mr. W. P. Walton, of the Frankfort Journal, was called at Lawrenceburg Monday and the case set for to-day. An effort was made to have Judge Peake vacate the bench, Mr. Walton's attorneys believing that he was prejudiced in the case, but he stubbornly refused to do so. As Judge Peake does not like Mr. Walton we fear the latter will get the hot end. However we hope the judge will show to the world that his enemies can get justice in his court.

THEY won't let some of the old fellows rest in peace, even in the grave. At Philadelphia the body of James Wilson, a signer of the declaration of independence, was exhumed after 108 years and placed in another grave, where, let us hope, it will remain till the final trumpet shall sound.

AN exchange notes that a change of 4,000 votes would have served to wipe out the Republican majority in the lower house of Congress. Only by this narrow margin was the administration sustained, notwithstanding the confessed popularity of its chief.

THE public always has to foot the bills. Railroad managements which have raised wages 10 per cent. now announce that they will advance freight rates 10 per cent. The hilarity over the first announcement is likely to subside when the second is read.

MR. W. P. WALTON has bought the Frankfort Call, an afternoon publication, and for the present will merge it with the Frankfort Journal. He informs his readers that when occasion requires the Call will be resumed as an afternoon paper.

POLITICAL.

Representative S. M. Russell, of Todd county, was badly hurt in a runaway.

Patrick H. McCarren, the leader of the Brooklyn Democracy, in an interview in Denver denied that he scratched Hearst at the recent election.

In a congratulatory speech to the officers and men of the battleship Louisiana, upon which he made the trip to Panama, President Roosevelt dwelt upon the opportunities for young men in the navy.

W. D. Boyce, a Chicago publisher, surprised the postal Commission at Washington by presenting a proposition to take over the postal business of the country and operate it as a private enterprise under Government control.

At Washington, Speaker Cannon has disposed of the argument over "clit" spelling. "What kind of spelling do you favor Mr. Speaker?" was asked him. "Oh, hell!" said Uncle Joe. "I don't bother my head about either kind. I leave my spelling to the stenographer."

Although deluged with letters of appeal, the president is still firm regarding his dismissal of the Negroes of the 24th Infantry. The secretary to Booker T. Washington and the Negro collector of internal revenue called on the president and were closeted with him in regard to the matter.

William Jennings Bryan is easily the best man available for the Democrats to nominate for President in 1908, and if nominated, he should win. Theodore Roosevelt and William Randolph Hearst are eliminated as presidential possibilities by the verdict rendered by New York voters on November 6th, said Senator Blackburn in a Washington interview.

The Government has decided to drop the prosecution of the case against former Congressman W. Godfrey Hunter, of the Eleventh district of Kentucky, who was charged with violation of civil service laws in forcing political assessments upon postmasters and other Federal officers, when he was a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress against D. C. Edwards.

Congressman John Sharp Williams in a speech at Wathall, Miss., declared that Gov. Vardaman was "a monomaniac on the Negro question and not in accord with the sentiment of the South." It has become known that Gov. Beckham has notified Louisville ministers, who desired a conference with him regarding the enforcement of the Sunday laws, that the Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, will not be received at the Executive office at future meetings. The Louisville ministers will go to Frankfort to-day. Dr. Powell declines to recede from his position attacking the Governor's sincerity.

Here and There.

An unknown robber blew open the post-office safe at Bogue Chitto, Miss., and got away with $1,000.

Two buildings leased for a Negro school have been destroyed by fire within two weeks at East St. Louis.

The Federal grand jury at St. Louis returned two indictments against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company on a charge of violating the anti-trust law.

A floating mine, a legacy of the Russo-Japanese war, was driven ashore on the coast of Hondo, where it exploded, killing 10 villagers and wounding 56.

About 500 unorganized employees of the Arnold plant of the American Window Glass Company, New Kensington, Pa., struck, causing a suspension of the works.

Senator B. R. Tillman delivered his lecture in Chicago according to announcement. Police and detectives were distributed throughout the hall, but there was no trouble.

Luther Frazier, a Negro, was sentenced in Atlanta to 15 years' imprisonment for attempt at criminal assault. The crime was committed just prior to the Atlanta riots.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company has granted an increase of four cents an hour in the wages of its trainmen on the main line from Chicago to El Paso.

Distillers throughout the country are much worked up over the recent order of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue relative to the use of wholesale liquor dealers' stamps.

Ninety-six Federal prisoners, each of a different type, and convicted of various crimes against the United States, left Washington on a special train for the Government prison in Atlanta.

At Beattyville, Mose Feltner, of Hamilton, O., formerly of Breathitt county, was dismissed by Judge Riddle on charges of confederating to secure the assassination of Judge James Hargis.

J. Handy Moore and Dr. J. M. White, of Hickman, while intoxicated, fell from their buggy. It was raining at the time, and when found the next morning both men had died of drowning.

A fine of $18,000 was imposed on the American Sugar Refining Co. by Judge Hough in the United States circuit court of New York for accepting rebates from the New York Central Railroad Co.

Anent the report that Nat C. Goodwin won $62,000 from Theodore Barrett cutting cards, the actor has been invited to the District Attorney's office to tell the name of the proprietor of this house of high play.

Six men were burned to death and probably 35 were injured in a fire that practically destroyed the Lighthouse Hotel conducted by the Salvation Army, in St. Louis. Nearly 500 people were asleep in the hotel.

Ethel Davis, eight-year-old daughter of Deputy Sheriff Flint Davis, of Breathitt county, was instantly killed by a bullet from her father's pistol. The officer let the weapon drop on the floor and it was discharged.

The dead letter sale, the most amusing public function that takes place at the national capital, will be held on December 17, when nondescript articles from all parts of the world will be knocked down to the highest bidder.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

G. Urfer, of Junction City, died suddenly of apoplexy while out in his cow lot.

Parker White, serving a jail sentence, made his escape from the Richmond jail.

Some careless hunter punctured with bird shot a fine broodmare belonging to I. S. Tevis a few days ago.

Robert Rankin, of the Hedgeville section, has been elected a director in the Boyle National Bank at Danville.

Seventeen head of live stock were burned in James Dinch's barn near Middleboro. Blood hounds were brought to the scene and as a result of their trail John James and George Ayers are in jail.

Lee Turner, of "Quarter House" fame, in whose blind tiger 35 men have been killed, has quit the liquor business and is making speeches in Bell county on behalf of temperance in the fight against saloons in that county.

In the case of Pulliam against Baker, requiring several days for trial, the jury decided in favor of Baker's claim that Pulliam is an equal partner in the business of the Mountaineer Publishing Co., and not a creditor of Baker's as alleged by the plaintiff.—Somerset Journal.

AN enjoyable hop was given at Walton's Opera House Tuesday evening in honor of Misses Lula and Lottie Kitchen, of Ashland, the attractive guests of Misses Sue Taylor and Nannie Woods Engleman. By the way these young ladies will return to their home at Ashland to-morrow, much to the regret of several of our young men.

THANKSGIVING yesterday was a quiet one here. The banks, postoffice and most of the stores were closed and business generally was suspended. In the morning Dr. W. F. Vaughan preached a fine sermon at the Methodist church but in the afternoon and evening nothing out of the ordinary was "doing." The weather was perfect and a good many took to the fields in search of quail.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. W. M. Wheat has sold his stock of general merchandise at Mt. Salem to Mr. Matt Engleman, of Moreland. Possession given Feb. 1, 1907. Mr. Wheat is undecided as to what he will do, but we hope he will continue to remain in Lincoln. Mr. Engleman is a merchant of considerable experience. He is a fine gentleman and the citizens of the Mt. Salem section should give him a warm welcome to their midst.

NEW STORE.—Messrs. G. C. Moser & Co. have opened a grocery store at Moreland and are doing a good business. Mr. Moser was born in Pennsylvania but came to Casey some six years ago. He has been a resident of Lincoln county several months.

SOME of our patrons evidently think we send out statements for the fun of the thing, from the attention they give them. Patience is ceasing to be a virtue with us in some cases where we have written and written for remittances. Next thing you hear of these accounts will be turned over to a good lawyer for collection.

NOTICE.—The Fiscal court of Lincoln county will convene in special session on Thursday, Dec. 20th, 1906, and all turnpike contractors who have completed their contracts and want any Christmas money will file their claims with the clerk on or before that day. R. C. Warren, judge Lincoln county court. Nov. 19, 1906.

A ST. LOUIS woman, in her petition for divorce, complains that her husband had the irritating habit of wadding up $50 and $100 bills and throwing them at her. Some women never know when they are well off. The majority of them seek divorce because their husbands have the irritating habit of not throwing any kind of bills at them.

A DESERVED PROMOTION.—Mr. M. H. Randolph, who married a sister of Mrs. Emmett McCormack, of Hustonville, has been made general agent of the Frisco lines in St. Louis. He has been with the company 25 years. Mr. R. began as agent at Derby, Kansas, and has received a number of promotions. He was chief clerk in the office at Wichita, Kansas, for several years and has held many good positions with the Frisco people.

AN exceedingly interesting and enjoyable entertainment was that at the Graded School Wednesday evening. There were 20 numbers on the program and each was well rendered. The music numbers were especially good, the drills were well executed, the declamations were fine and the dialogues and pantomimes were most creditable. A paper by Thomas Bright is deserving of especial mention. He was living a half century ahead and his "plays" on his colleagues and teachers were amusing and ingenious. Robert Waters' Journal was the source of much laughter. The debate was an enjoyable feature. It was affirmed by John Downer and Miss Berta Jean Penny that "Immigration Should Be Prohibited." George Hopper and Miss Bessie Yantis took the negative. Each of them spoke on the question and some strong points were brought out on each side. The judges, Miss Mattie Paxton, Prof. O. B. Fallis and Mr. Kendrick Alcorn, after due consideration, decided that the affirmative side had won. A large crowd was present and splendid order was preserved. Much credit is due both the teachers and pupils for their good work of the evening.

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt.
